The KINKS 50 years 1964 – 2014

For this festive day The Kast Off Kinks are invited over from England to play the stage in Estrado. With original members Mick Avory (drums), John Dalton (bass and vocals), Ian Gibbons (keyboards) and Dave Clarke (lead guitar and vocals) playing it will be a true celebration of 50 years of The KINKS. Joining on stage are The Kinky Horns from Norway with a wonderful horn section complementing the performance. Support act and local band The Flamin' Stars have proven in previous years to be a great start of the concert, playing of course The KINKS songs.

This Sunday promises to be a fantastic musical celebration with top acts!

Other activities are scheduled to make this truly a memorable day. There's an open stage for KINKS performers, a special KINKS quiz and of course all sorts of KINKS merchandise.

The party will last the whole day from 11.00 a.m. until 8 p.m. Sunday the 28th of September will be an unique day as this is the only celebration of its kind in mainland Europe. Fans are expected to come from far and away to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Kinks debut.
